

Refund Policy

Please choose carefully. Refunds will not be issued if you simply change your mind.

All course fees are payable in advance.

Deposits required on enrolment equal to 25% of the total course can be made by prior arrangement only. Contact Training Manager.

All monies received are placed in a separate account and are not accessed until the course or module starts. No refund is possible if students withdraw partially through the course or module, except if stated within this document. All monies will be refunded upon application.

Cancellation of enrolment will be required by dated email 48 hours prior to commencement of any course.

Medical or Personal Hardship

Applicants who are unable to complete the course and can provide a medical certificate or show extreme personal hardship may be granted a pro-rated refund.

The Training Manager is responsible for the refund/s of any monies.
